

A woman in a green Girl Scouts shirt is smiling and looking down at something in her hands. In the background, three girls are inside a red and white tent. One girl is holding a yellow water bottle, and another is holding a flashlight. The scene is set outdoors with trees and foliage in the background.

Is Girl Scouts Right for You?

Opportunities abound for girls and volunteers to take the first step in making the boring days into the best days.

As a Girl Scout, your girl will practice leadership with grit like a go-getter, problem solve like an innovator, embrace challenges like a risk-taker, and show empathy like a leader—in an all-girl, girl-led, and girl-friendly environment where she can feel free to let her full, magnificent personality shine through every single time.

Whether you're helping with an event, facilitating a girl leadership program, or starting a troop, you can make a difference in a Girl Scout's life. As a volunteer, you'll be a role model for G.I.R.L.s. You'll help girls discover their values, develop skills, connect with others and explore the world around them.
