

Girl Scouts,
Hornets' Nest Council

2016 BOARD SLATE

Officers Standing for Election

Members at Large Standing for Election

Members at Large Currently Serving

Board Development Committee Members Standing for Election

Board Development Committee Members Currently Serving

National Delegates Currently Serving

OFFICERS STANDING FOR ELECTION

PRESIDENT

Glenda Gabriel
2016-2018 Term
*Neighborhood Lending Executive,
Bank of America*

Glenda Gabriel, the Consumer Lending Neighborhood Lending Executive, began her career path in manufacturing with Procter & Gamble. Her professional background also includes brand management and marketing with Clorox, advertising, and financial services leadership roles with Provident Financial, Chase, and Bank of America. These roles prepared Glenda for leading Bank of America's Community Reinvestment Act (CRA), low- to moderate-income lending for Home Loans and Small Business. In addition, Glenda has oversight of Home Loans Multicultural lending. In addition, Glenda is a BAC co-executive sponsor for Leadership, Education, Advocacy & Development (LEAD) for Women, a member of the Mortgage Bankers Association D&I committee, and serves on several multicultural real estate association boards.

1ST VICE PRESIDENT

Kathryn Karlic, CFA
2016-2018 Term
*Senior Vice President,
Cross Enterprise Marketing,
TIAA*

Kathryn Karlic, Senior Vice President of Cross Enterprise Marketing for TIAA, has extensive experience and expertise spanning financial services, insurance and investment management. She is responsible for expanding TIAA's relationships with foundations and endowments by executing a cross-enterprise marketing strategy. Prior to joining TIAA, Kathryn worked for M&T Bank as Group Vice President of Wealth and Institutional Services, and Chief Client Officer for Wilmington Trust Investment Advisors. She also worked at GE Asset Management where her diverse roles included serving as Chief Investment Officer responsible for the investment for over $100 billion of fixed income assets, and was the President of Sales and Marketing. Kathryn is on the advisory board for the Cutler Center for Investments at Babson College, and is a founding member of Babson's Center for Women's Leadership.

OFFICERS STANDING FOR ELECTION

2ND VICE PRESIDENT

Beth Britt
2016-2018 Term
President,
EPB Consulting LLC

On the Board since 2011, Beth is founder and president of EPB Consulting, which provides workforce development, change management, communications, strategic planning and project management services. She currently serves as national consultant for the Midwest region with the Center for Energy Workforce Development, through which she helps energy companies devise talent development solutions for filling skilled jobs. Before starting her business, Beth served 25 years with Duke Energy, retiring in 2010 as Vice President, HR Planning and Integration. Beth focuses her volunteerism on programs that benefit children and young adults and is engaged in a number of volunteerism activities through Christ Episcopal Church.

3RD VICE PRESIDENT

Sara Garcés Roselli
2016-2018 Term
Managing Partner,
Packard Place

Joining GSHNC in 2013, Sara currently serves as Chair of the Board Development Committee. She brings over 15 years of leadership and management experience with Fortune 100 companies and Entrepreneurial Enterprises. Sara co-founded Packard Place to advance the cause of entrepreneurship and innovation in Charlotte. Packard Place develops fast-growth businesses and provides the professional community and mentorship to drive them toward success. Sara is a Vice-Chair of the Goodwill of Southern Piedmont Board, the Co-Chair of Grameen America's Charlotte Advisory Board and serves on the Charlotte Catholic High School Foundation Board. In 1996, she and her partner started the Garcés-Roselli Foundation for Children that focuses on leadership development for young people. Sara is a former Girl Scout and now the proud mother of two Girl Scouts and two Boy Scouts.

OFFICERS STANDING FOR ELECTION

TREASURER

Karen Wimbish
2016-2018 Term
Financial Services Executive

Karen Wimbish, Financial Services Executive, serves on GSHNC's Finance and Human Resources Committees. She was most recently the director of Retail Retirement at Wells Fargo where she led a department of over 245, all of whom focused on increasing Wells Fargo's ability to help retail customers plan for and live a comfortable retirement. Her background includes 17 years in banking, commercial and retail, and roles in credit administration, project management and training. Her past community activities include Leadership Metro Richmond and United Way. After growing up in her mother's troop, and serving on the board of the Commonwealth Girl Scout Council of Virginia, she is a Girl Scout veteran.

SECRETARY

Michelle Abbott
2016-2018 Term
Director of Sustainability, Duke Energy

Michelle Abbott, director of sustainability for Duke Energy, is GSHNC's Board Secretary, leads the Strategic Planning Task Group and serves on the Finance Committee. She resides in Cabarrus County and is an active member of University City United Methodist Church where she has served in several leadership positions. As Duke Energy's director of sustainability, she is responsible for the development and execution of their integrated strategy to operate in a way that is good for people, the planet and profits. This includes leading the company's internal employee engagement program and serving as an external representation to key industry groups. With almost 30 years of diverse experience at Duke Energy, Michelle is a licensed professional engineer in North and South Carolina.

MEMBERS AT LARGE STANDING FOR ELECTION

Ann Blakeney Clark
2016-2018 Term
*Superintendent,
Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools*

Ann Blakeney Clark, Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools' superintendent, brings a quarter-century of experience with an extensive background including service as a principal at elementary, middle and high schools, and the chief academic officer. She graduated from Davidson College with a B.A. in English and earned a master's degree in special education from the University of Virginia. Her achievements in education and the community have been widely recognized, being named a Broad Superintendent Fellow, Charlotte Women of the Year, and a National Principal of the Year (1994). She also received the Thomas Jefferson Distinguished Alumnae Award from the University of Virginia and was a William Friday Fellow and Council for Great City Schools Outstanding Urban Educator Award winner.

CaSondra Devine
2016-2018 Term
*Senior VP Environmental Sustainability,
Wells Fargo*

CaSondra Devine is the Internal Environmental Sustainability Leader at Wells Fargo. With more than 15 years' experience in the financial services industry, Devine leads a team responsible for working collaboratively across Wells Fargo to develop effective team member engagement strategies and champion operational initiatives to help the company achieve its vision of having a culture that considers environmental sustainability in its actions domestically and abroad. A certified educator, Devine is an engaged community leader devoted to social responsibility and the development of young leaders in her professional and personal life. Devine earned her Bachelor of Science in Mathematics Education from South Carolina State University and Master's in Organizational Development with a focus in Coaching from Queens University in Charlotte. Devine resides in Charlotte, NC with her husband Ronnie and their daughter Faith.

MEMBERS AT LARGE STANDING FOR ELECTION

Loretta Evivié, MBA, Ed.D
2016-2018 Term
Division Director of Business & Accounting, Central Piedmont Community College

Dr. Loretta Evivié, Division Director of Business and Accounting at Central Piedmont Community College, is responsible for the growth and development of accounting, business administration, human resources management, international business and marketing and retailing degree programs. Prior to her career in education, she enjoyed a diverse professional career in the fields of accounting, auditing, taxes, insurance, investments and small business ownership. Dr. Evivié is also actively involved in non-profit organizations focused on providing scholarships and need-based funds to students seeking secondary and tertiary education. As an alumna of an all-girls secondary school in northern Nigeria, she is involved in mentoring and developing leadership skills in girls.

William "Mack" McDonald
2016-2018 Term
*COO,
Renaissance West Community Initiative*

Mack McDonald is a Charlotte native and has lived in the Queen City most of his life. Mack holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering from North Carolina Agricultural & Technical (A&T) State University and a MBA from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro (UNCG). During his career Mack has been an operations, project management, strategic planning and technology professional and has a long history of community service and advocacy. Mack's passion is the community and helping people. Currently he serves on boards of directors for the Charlotte Merchants Foundation and Charlotte Warriors Youth Athletics. He also serves on several committees with the Pi Phi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity and is a Guest Services Ministry volunteer with Mecklenburg Community Church. Mack is a member of American Leadership Forum Class IX and Leadership Charlotte Class 24. Mack and his wife, Alisa, are the proud parents of three young adult children, Andrew, Michael and Adriane.

MEMBERS AT LARGE STANDING FOR ELECTION

Barbara Neidinger
2016-2018 Term
*Executive Director,
Ernst & Young*

Barb is an Executive Director at Ernst & Young LLP. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics / Economics from Trinity University, San Antonio, and a Masters of Professional Accountancy in Taxation from the University of Texas, Austin. She serves as Ernst & Young's Southeast Inbound Tax Leader, and is the Tax Account Leader for many foreign-owned companies. Barbara is a Past President of the North Carolina World Trade Association. She is currently Chairperson on the Board of Directors of The Pines at Davidson, a retirement community; and is active in Girl Scouts, serving on the Audit Committee and the Gold Award Committee of the Girl Scouts Hornets' Nest Council. She is also a past elder of First Presbyterian Church, Charlotte.

Dianne Neurauter
2016-2018 Term
Senior Manager, Business Advisory Services, Grant Thornton

Dianne Neurauter is an Advisory Services Senior Manager with Grant Thornton LLP with 10 years of experience in Information Technology (IT) consulting services for both public and private clients. Dianne has broad consulting experience in many industries including financial services, manufacturing, and healthcare. During her tenure with Grant Thornton she has performed an assortment of IT related services for clients of various sizes from global financial institutions to global manufacturing companies. Dianne is a Certified Information System Auditor (CISA), as well as a certified Project Management Professional (PMP). She is also a member of both national and state organizations, including the Project Management Institute (PMI) and the Information Systems Audit and Control Association (ISACA). Dianne holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Information Systems from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington.

MEMBERS AT LARGE STANDING FOR ELECTION

Marisa Petriano
2016-2018 Term
*Account Director,
Concentric Marketing*

Marisa Petriano is a marketing strategist with 10+ years of experience guiding brands. A native New Yorker, Marisa relocated to Charlotte in 2001 to attend UNC Charlotte where she graduated with a degree in marketing. Post graduation, she accepted an account management position at Concentric, a boutique-marketing firm. After two years, she joined Bank of America's marketing department supporting the business-banking segment. In 2011, Marisa enrolled in an international MBA program studying in Wilmington, NC and Valencia, Spain. After completing her MBA, Marisa returned to Concentric for a leadership role, responsible for developing and launching CPG brands. Marisa is an active volunteer for Our Towns Habitat for Humanity and the Girl Scouts Hornets' Nest Council. She and her husband Richard live in Cornelius, NC.

MEMBERS AT LARGE CURRENTLY SERVING

Monica Alexander
2015-2017 Term
Director, Customer Care Tools,
Time Warner Cable

Monica Alexander, Director in the Care Shared Services Group for Time Warner Cable, bridges the gap between business strategy and technology for the Residential Care Organization. She is responsible for aligning technology improvement with operational strategy to optimize the business process and to improve the customer experience. Monica joined Time Warner Cable in 2003 and has managed various teams in developing enterprise technology and operational support strategies. Prior to entering the cable industry, Monica led various Quality Assurance teams in the financial and software industries. She received her B.A. in Management Information Systems from Florida State University and currently resides in Belmont, NC with her husband and two sons.

Brian Bernhardt
2015-2017 Term
Shareholder
Bernhardt and Strawser, P.A.

Brian C. Bernhardt is a shareholder at Bernhardt and Strawser, P.A., where he represents creditors in North Carolina collection matters. He has been named a North Carolina and Virginia Rising Star Super Lawyer, and received an Excellence in Writing Award from the ABA Probate and Property Magazine. In addition, he is a member of the Levine Jewish Community Center and the Mecklenburg County Bar Foundation. He previously served as Board President of the Charlotte Jewish Preschool, on the Board of Trustees for Temple Israel, on committees for the Foundation for the Charlotte Jewish Community and the Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte, and assisted in revising governing documents for The Foundation for Shalom Park and the Levine Jewish Community Center.

MEMBERS AT LARGE CURRENTLY SERVING

Paulette Bryant
2015-2017 Term
*Lead Physician,
Blume Pediatric Hematology Oncology Clinic, Presbyterian Hospital*

Retired Navy Captain Dr. Paulette Bryant, a Lead Physician at Presbyterian Hospital, has been in a leadership position at Blume Pediatric Hematology Oncology Clinic since 2008. She serves as principal investigator for the Children's Oncology Group at Novant Health Presbyterian and is dedicated to the hemophilia and sickle cell pediatric communities, providing complex medical care. Dr. Bryant was recognized as a Women of Distinction in 2012, is honored annually as one of Charlotte's Best Doctors, and received the 2014 Charlotte Business Journal Award for Physician of the Year. In addition, she received awards for Education in Health Care and received the Women in Business Achievement Award in 2011. In addition, she serves on the board of directors for Project Life.

Cynthia Bush
2015-2017 Term
*Managing Director,
TIAA*

Cynthia handles a $25 billion portfolio of fixed income investments for TIAA. She has been an executive with TIAA for 15 years, after working with JP Morgan in New York and Citibank in Europe. She holds the Chartered Financial Analyst ("CFA") designation and is a member of the CFA North Carolina Society. Cynthia is the ex-officio officer of the board of Children's Theatre of Charlotte, a board member of Lake Norman Charter and was previously appointed by the Mecklenburg County Commissioners to the Citizen's Capital Budget Advisory Committee where she was elected Chairman. She also supports a variety of other cultural, civic, and educational organizations and serves as an adjunct business faculty member of Central Piedmont Community College. Cynthia is married with two children.

MEMBERS AT LARGE CURRENTLY SERVING

Betty Johnson
2015-2017 Term
*President,
I-to-I LLC*

Betty Johnson, President of I-to-I LLC, brings 30 years of professional experience in professional education, consulting, and business development and marketing. She serves as the Chair of GSHNC's Brand Marketing Task Group and is on the board for Charlotte Women Executives. Her previous board memberships include Women Executives for Community Service, Barebones Theatre Group, and Charlotte Women's Political Caucus. A Charlotte native, she has served her community through involvement in diverse organizations including Crisis Assistance Ministry, Habitat for Humanity, World Affairs Council of Charlotte, Wing Haven Gardens and Bird Sanctuary, Thompson Children's Centers, and Queens University's Entrepreneur Leadership Circle.

Nicole P. McKinney, PhD, LPC
2015-2017 Term
*Mecklenburg Regional VP,
Cardinal Innovations Healthcare*

Nicole joined GSHNC in 2015 and brings 20 years of collective experience in clinical behavioral health counseling and organizational executive management. Nicole is currently Cardinal's Executive Vice President for their Mecklenburg County region and as a leader in her community; she has established strong community connections through various organizations, both within Mecklenburg County and abroad. She currently serves on the Community Care Partners of Greater Mecklenburg board, Mecklenburg Provider Council Executive board, amongst a host of other community taskforces and committees. Nicole holds a doctorate degree in industrial/organizational development, which stemmed from her passion to foster systemic change within companies that could result in improved behavioral health services for individuals and families. To date, Nicole remains a champion for fostering community vitality and citizen enrichment.

MEMBERS AT LARGE CURRENTLY SERVING

Jon Miller
2015-2017 Term
Director of Business Development, AM King

Jon Miller, Director of Business Development for AM King, is an experienced business development executive with diverse experience across the property, design and construction industries and has been integral to AM King's success since 2011. Previously, he achieved valuable experience in preconstruction, project management and operations management at companies including Lend Lease, Bradley Construction, and NVR. Jon serves as the Chair of GSHNC's Property Committee. For role models, Jon doesn't look far. "My heroes are my wife and my mom, who continues to build a successful family business that started in 1975." When not at work, his personal interests include spending time with his wife and three kids, running and landscaping.

Cristy Swink
2015-2017 Term
*Vice President & General Manager,
Mid-Atlantic AT&T Mobility*

Cristy Swink, Vice President and General Manager of AT&T Mobility's Mid-Atlantic market, leads a sales team of over 1,100 in North Carolina, Virginia and West Virginia. In addition, she has financial accountability for operating income including revenue from new sales and retention of current streams, and expense from sales and retail locations. Cristy has extensive, hands-on technology experience, including roles where she designed and launched data services. She has multiple technology patents and is always working on her next big idea. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Furman University and an MBA from Mercer University. Cristy resides in Davidson with her husband and two sons.

MEMBERS AT LARGE CURRENTLY SERVING

Stacy Wood
2015-2017 Term
*Partner,
Parker Poe*

Stacy Wood, Partner for Parker Poe, will become the HR Committee Chairman this year. She has been successfully defending employers and educational institutions for over 20 years, with a focus on discrimination, harassment and ERISA litigation. Stacy is a pragmatic adviser and problem solver for manufacturing businesses and service providers of all sizes, colleges, universities and K-12 schools throughout North and South Carolina. Super Lawyers named her one of the Top 50 Female Employment & Labor Lawyers in North Carolina, and she was included in the Charlotte Business Journal's 'Top 40 under 40.' In addition, Business North Carolina magazine listed her among 'Legal Elite' in Employment Law in 2008 and 2015.

Jennifer Ziccardi
2015-2017 Term
*Chief Nurse Executive and VP,
Carolinas HealthCare System*

Jennifer Ziccardi, Chief Nurse Executive and VP for Carolinas HealthCare System, brings years of nursing and healthcare management experience to the Membership Engagement and Retention Committee. Jennifer is responsible for executive oversight for nursing practice and policy for the Behavioral Health service line of Carolinas HealthCare System and is passionate about the recovery movement and getting communities moving toward mental wellness. Growing up a Girl Scout, Jennifer attributes her social skills and caring nature to the organization. She is an advocate of Girl Scouts and feels that empowering girls to become the best they can be is key to successful, healthy living. Working for Carolinas HealthCare System, Jennifer brings a unique perspective to improving the health and well-being of the community Hornets' Nest serves.

BOARD DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

MEMBERS STANDING FOR ELECTION

Glenda Gabriel, ex officio

*See previous listing in Officers
Standing for Election*

Jennifer Ziccardi

*See previous listing in Members
at Large Currently Serving*

BOARD DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

MEMBERS CURRENTLY SERVING

Tanita Alexander
2015-2017 Term

Tanita Alexander, TIAA's Vice President, Marketing Integration, is focused on cross-channel customer strategy. Prior to joining TIAA, Tanita was Vice President of Customer Relationship Management at Time Warner Cable and held a variety of senior roles at Wells Fargo/Wachovia Bank and Bank of America. Her roles spanned from segment management, relationship marketing, customer experience, call center operations, and direct marketing. She has also had professional and community affiliations including board membership of Pat's Place Child Advocacy Center, membership with the National Association of Minorities in Cable and the National Coalition of 100 Black Women, and ongoing volunteer work with Mecklenburg area Catholic Schools and the Charlotte Rescue Mission.

Dawn Royle
2015-2017 Term

Dawn Royle, Investors Title Charlotte/Monroe area Marketing Manager, joined the company in 2015. Investors Title, a well-respected national title insurer, was founded in 1972 and is based in Chapel Hill, NC. Dawn has been in the title insurance field since 2004 and values the relationships she has built with her clients. She loves going to work every day and being a trusted advisor to her attorney, paralegal, developer and lender customers. Dawn also enjoys her community involvement, including her service to/with United Way, Susan G. Komen (Charlotte Affiliate), CREW Charlotte, Inc. and GSHNC's Board Development Committee.

BOARD DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE CONTINUED

MEMBERS CURRENTLY SERVING

Loretta Evivié

*See previous listing in Members
at Large Standing for Election*

Sara Garcés Roselli

*See previous listing in
Officers Standing for Election*

NATIONAL DELEGATES CURRENTLY SERVING

Lisa Marker

Lisa Marker has led a multi-level troop in Stanly County and earned her Green Hornet award in 2013. She currently serves on the Stanly County Service Unit as Co-Manager, Cookie Manager and Lead Delegate. In addition, she serves on GSHNC's Board Level Awards Committee. She enjoys working with girls and loves to see how they grow through their Girl Scouting journey, intellectually and through their personalities.

Rhonda Robinson

Rhonda Robinson has been involved in Girl Scouting in many areas, including as a Troop Leader, a Leader 101 facilitator, a Service Unit Manager and team member. She enjoys STEAM and teaching and training others. Rhonda has been awarded the Service Unit Outstanding Volunteer/Leader while also earning her Green/Silver/Gold Hornet Service Unit Awards, along with her Board-Level Award Appreciation Pin. She appreciates that Girl Scouts offers a variety of experiences and opportunities for all girls, making every experience unique.

Kim McNeill

Kim McNeill has been a Montgomery County troop leader for 10 years and received the Honor Pin, Leadership Development Pin and Silver Leaves in 2007 and 2009. A former Service Unit Manager, Kim serves as a Lead Delegate and on various council committees including Kickoff and SKY. In addition, she has led travel groups to three of the WAGGGS Centres: Pax Lodge, our Chalet, and Sangam. She enjoys seeing girls' faces light up every time they learn something new and continues to be excited when girls succeed in meeting their goals and, in their own way, changing the world one step at a time.

Loretta Evivié

*See previous listing in Members
at Large Standing for Election*

Sara Garcés Roselli

*See previous listing in
Officers Standing for Election*

Jennifer Ziccardi

*See previous listing in Members
at Large Currently Serving*

NATIONAL DELEGATE ALTERNATES

CURRENTLY SERVING

Yolanda Sallie

Yolanda Sallie has been a member of Girl Scouts for over 20 years, starting as a Brownie in Rocky Mount, NC. In 2004, after reading an article about the overwhelming number of girls without a troop, Yolanda volunteered and completed leader training, without hesitation. Since then, Yolanda has served as a leader for multiple age levels. She has also served on the Meck 5 board as assistant product sales manager for three years before moving into her current role of product sales manager. During her years of serving GSHNC, Yolanda has received the Outstanding Leader Award (2008) and the Volunteer of Excellence Award (2013).

Betty Johnson

See previous listing in Members at Large Currently Serving